

INTRODUCTION / PREAMBLE

By Regulation (EU) 2016/679, containing provisions for the protection of individuals regarding the processing of personal data, Conservatorio di Musica "Giuseppe Verdi" with headquarters in Via Conservatorio, 12 – 20122 Milano (hereinafter called the "Organization") as a data controller, it is required to provide certain information regarding the use of personal data. The legal representative of the Data Controller is the President at the time appointed. This is without prejudice compliance by the organization of the existing rules on transparency and mandatory publication of data and documents.

DATA SOURCES AND TYPOLOGY OF PROCESSED DATA

The personal data of customers acquired by the organization can be collected:

- directly from the data subject (for example at the time of contractual operations or during self-certification made by the person concerned)
- at public-access sources (eg. The documents published on the chamber of commerce, etc)
- at/with third parties in the event where any organization acquires data for the purpose of using them for the pursuit of the institutional purposes (for example in public administration in the event of a request for official certificates)

For data collected not directly from the data subject, this disclaimer is provided upon registration and no later than the first communication

The processed data, where the relationship in place so requests, include: personal details and specific information such as sensitive / judicial data.

It may happen that, in the fulfillment of specific obligations relating to the relationship management (for example accounting, payment, social security, welfare and tax), and in case of Management of any litigation, court and / or consultancy activities the organization comes into possession of "sensitive information" which may possibly be inferred the racial or ethnic origin, religious belief, political opinions membership of parties, unions, associations or organizations of a religious, philosophical, political or trade union, as well as the state of health and / or judicial data.

In any case, all data are treated in the pursuit of the institutional purposes in compliance with the above Act and the privacy obligations that have always guided the organization's operations.

PERIOD OF DATA STORAGE

The data is stored only for the period necessary for the purposes for which they are processed, or in the terms provided for by laws, national and EU rules and regulations to which the organization has to follow (eg. As accounting or tax laws, etc.).

Periodic checks are expected to be carried out on the processed data and the possibility of being able to delete if no longer needed for their intended purposes.

DATA CONFERMENT AND CONSEQUENCES OF NOT PROVIDING / MISSED PROVIDING

MANDATORY/ NOT MANDATORY

The provision of data to be considered mandatory for what concerns the treatment that the organization must do to meet its institutional obligations towards the party concerned on the basis of the relationship, as well as legal obligations, rules, regulations. Failure to provide such data will make it impossible for the organization to act on the existing relationship.

The purposes for which it is mandatory to provide the data is marked with the following symbol:

The consent is not required for any other purpose and, even when given, may be revoked at any time by the person concerned.

The purposes for which it is NOT mandatory the provision of data is marked with the following symbol:

PURPOSE OF DATA PROCESSING

The data is processed in the normal activities of the organization and for the following institutional purposes:

Provision of services required by the person in the relationship / contract in place (for example: right to use the rooms and spaces, right to use the tools, etc), purposes related to the organization of the institutional organization initiatives (concerts, educational projects, projects, master classes, seminars, etc), including for the purposes of legitimate interest or related administrative tasks (eg. invoicing), accounting and tax effected for public institutional purposes, implementation and management of obligations under laws, regulations and national and community legislation, and provisions issued by authorities legitimated by law and by the vigilance and control, management of any litigation, court and business consulting. The data may be subject to possible treatment anonymously for conducting statistical activities aiming at developing the institutional and / or improvement of the services offered.

Any institutional communications, to pursue the purposes explicit in the Statute, made via text / photo / audio / video material on electronic media (eg. via internet) or traditional media regarding the managed activities / initiatives by the organization that may contain data and images / video / audio containing the person concerned explicitly collected for example also by means of interviews, narration of case studies, events, etc;

DATA PROCESSING MODALITIES

The processing of personal data takes place through manual, computer and telematic tools with logic strictly related to the purposes and in any event so as to ensure the security and confidentiality of the data. The filing of the documentation is done both electronically and on paper. Here is some essential information.

The collection of personal data is limited to the minimum necessary for each specific purpose of the processing

The processing of personal data is limited to the purposes for which it was collected

The storage of personal data is limited to the minimum necessary for each specific purpose of the processing

Sensitive personal data collected and processed in electronic form are stored in encrypted form

No personal information provided to third-party commercial

No sale nor lease of personal data

SCOPE OF DISSEMINATION AND CATEGORIES OF PEOPLE

Personal data will be known and processed, in accordance with current legislation, by the institution's staff, identified as in charge, in service at the relevant facilities. The personal data collected by the organization may be communicated, for the pertinent to the aforementioned purposes, also to the following subjects or categories of subject:

- ✓ Subjects (possibly abroad) to which communication is required by law, by regulation or by national and European legislation as well as for the enforcement of contractual obligations or prior (eg banks, insurance and the like kind, etc) public administrations and institutions among whose tasks fall those of protection and safety;
- ✓ Legal, accounting work for study and resolution of any legal problems relating to the contractual position in place (for example, Avvocatura dello Stato, for the purposes of the criminal litigation, civil and administrative, judicial authorities of whatever order and able, referees, Administrations involved, for the management of extraordinary appeals to the President of the Republic, the judicial Police bodies, Tax Commissions; Freelancers, for the purpose of legal aid or advice, including those counterparty when due; insurance companies, in case of insurance policies containing such communications)
- ✓ Third parties who work with the organization in order to provide service requested
- ✓ Accounting and Tax consultant;
- ✓ All subjects any recipients of the organization's communication campaigns (for the purpose n.2)

MAIN LEGAL SOURCES

The data are used for the development of the institutional aims of the terms laid down in laws, regulations and national and EU regulations that the organization should follow. According to Regulation (EU) 2016/679, explicit normative references updated to their latest review state involving obligations or tasks on which could be possibly carried out the treatment of sensitive and judicial data, are available from the Data Controller, represented by the President at the time appointed. Such data may be disclosed as part of the pursuit of the intended purposes, only where required by law or regulation. It is without prejudice the communication or dissemination of data requested, in accordance with the law, police forces, judicial authorities, intelligence and security agencies or other public bodies, for purposes of defense or state security or the prevention, detection or suppression of crime.

DATA SUBJECT'S RIGHT

At any time the data subject could exercise his rights against the data controller or data processor in accordance with Regulation (EU) 2016/679 by contacting the owner using the following contacts: privacy@consmilano.it – Conservatorio di Musica "Giuseppe Verdi" Via Conservatorio, 12 20122 - Milano (for written communications), represented by the President at the time appointed. To ensure the proper exercise of the rights, the person must make themselves identifiable unequivocally. The organization is committed to providing feedback within 30 days and, in case of impossibility to respect these times, to justify any extension of the deadline. The feedback will be free of charge except in cases of unfounded (eg. There are no data concerning the applicant concerned) or excessive demands (ie. Repetitive over time) which may be charged a fee not exceeding the actual costs incurred for the research conducted in this case. The rights referring to personal data concerning deceased persons may be exercised by those who have a personal or acts to protect or for family reasons deserving protection. The data subject has the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority.

RIGHT TO GET ALL OF

RIGHT TO OBTAIN

- | | |
|---|---|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • origin of the personal data • categories of processed data • the purposes and methods of treatment • retention period • the logic applied in case of processing with the aid of electronic instruments • identity of the data controller, data processor • subjects and categories of subjects to whom the personal data can be communicated or who can learn about them as managers or in charge even in Third Countries • existence of the profiling process | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • existence or otherwise of their personal data and that such data are made available in an intelligible form • updating, correction or integration of data and limitation • cancellation, anonymization or blocking of data processed in violation of the law (including those for which conservation is not necessary for the purposes for which it was collected and subsequently processed) • confirmation that the transactions referred to in paragraphs above have been made known even to those to whom the data were communicated or disclosed, except where such compliance is impossible or involves a manifestly disproportionate to the protected right by the organization • a copy of the processed data |
|---|---|

RIGHT TO OPPOSE

- the processing of personal data concerning the data subject including profiling for legitimate reasons, even if pertinent to the purpose of collection
- the processing of personal data concerning him for the purpose of: sending advertising material, direct sale, conducting market research, commercial communications
- the processing of data processed for the purposes of historical or scientific research or statistical purposes except in cases of public interest in the treatment